Initiatives established by the college:

No new initiative relevant to sexual violence was established at the college in the 2021-22 year. Sexual violence awareness and promotion of related resources was included in the September 2021 and January 2022 Orientations.

Building upon 2020 practice, a virtual campaign specific to locating relevant supports and consent was conducted for all campuses in the fourth week of each semester. This campaign reminds students about sexual violence issues with which they have been acquainted at Orientation and that both on and off campus and virtual supports exist for them. The campaign is regularly scheduled together with other personal safety and personal development topics within an annual roster of communications, events and workshops being branded the
