Since this last section of the AI module contains a test for all students to complete, you should check to ensure that your grade book contains a column for the test, and if necessary you will need adjust your grade totals to allow for the proportion of the course grade that has been allocated for the successful completion of the test.

The AI test will most likely appear as the last column of your grade book.

If you require assistance with configuring Grade Book to account for the new Al module test, please contact Angela Bourgeois in the IT department.
